SCOUTS, NEIGHBORS JOIN FORCES TO GIVE BURNED OUT FAMILY NEW HOME

Civilian Defense, a group of Boy Scouts and the spirit of community giving combined last week to give Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kesner and their four children a new home within four hours of the leveling of their Los Gatos-Almaden Road home by fire Saturday noon.

The fire, which struck the Kesner home while Clyde Kesner was at work and his wife was on a shopping tour with two of their children, burned their home and their belongings before the Cambrian family was notified of the tragedy.

Boy Scout Troop 47 and Explorer Post 247, carrying out a previously designed civilian defense plan, cleaned up a storage house on the Flora Downing ranch and contacted neighbors and friends in the area to furnish and supply the new dwelling. Within four hours of the fire, a new home was completely furnished with rugs, bed clothing, furniture, personal clothing and food.

Scouts report that those called on gave willingly, regardless of whether or not they were acquaintances of the Kesners.

The Kesner's home was not insured.

"The people of the district have been wonderful to us," Mrs. Kesner said. "We are grateful beyond words for the generosity and kindness shown us by these people and the Scouts who contacted them. Such an act shows you what kind of people your neighbors really are. Without their help, we would have been left without a roof over our heads and without clothing on our backs. We can never really thank them enough."

Scouts who contacted neighbors and carried out the plan were following orders previously issued them by the office of civilian defense to cover similar types of emergencies.

SPOOKS, GOBLINS ROAM, BUT NO HARM DONE WEDNESDAY

Sheriff's deputies and local constables reported a quiet Halloween in the Campbell area Wednesday night. The Sheriff's office reports that several mailboxes were tipped over and a group of juveniles were ordered from the grammar school grounds while Constable Lanphear stated that several groups of boys were throwing tomatoes but that he dispersed them. Aside from the usual soaping and waxing of show windows, businessmen in the area escaped without major damage. Officials considered it one of the quietest Halloweens in the last ten years.

OFFICIALS MEET WITH ANDERSON ON SCHOOL TIE-UP

In an effort to speed allocation of critical materials for new schools, Campbell Union School District trustees and Supt. William C. Henley met Tuesday with Congressman Jack Z. Anderson in San Jose.

Henley said no special action has been taken yet as a result of the meeting, but the board is considering methods of expediting material allocations.

Anderson reported that restrictions and red tape tying up allocations has been a problem for many California school districts. As a means of bringing difficulties to the attention of authorities handling priorities, California Congressmen promoted resolutions in Congress to ease restrictions and speed action on allocations.

Hospital Children Enjoy Halloween

The children of Mrs. Bessie Porter's class at Santa Clara County Hospital enjoyed Hallowe'en "trick or treat" baskets last Wednesday. Baskets were made by Harriet Johnston's eighth grade class at the Campbell Grammar school with the aid of Mrs. Thelma Wathen, art instructor. They were filled with candy, gum and balloons. All contents and materials were donated by members of the class in order that children of the hospital could enjoy "trick or treat." Hospital children received the baskets on their food trays at lunch time.

PSYCHIATRIST TO SPEAK BEFORE PTA

Dr. Willard P. Morell, psychiatrist, formerly with the California Department of Mental Hygiene, will conduct a round table discussion of mental health at the monthly meeting of the Campbell Elementary School Parent-Teachers Association to be held in the kindergarten room at 2:15 on November 6. Seventh grade mothers will be hostesses for the meeting.

School Sues For Possession Of Building Site

Campbell Union High School District filed suit in Superior Court Tuesday to obtain by condemnation proceedings, a total of 28.162 acres of land at Union and Camden Avenues for the site of a future high school building. Owners of the property are Wilton A. Stine, president of the County Farm Bureau, and his wife, Viola D. Stine.

The school district is seeking two parcels of land, one covering approximately 28 acres and the other is a fractional .345 of an acre. Property makes up part of a 48-acre site planned by the district.

Laurance J. Hill, district superintendent, stated that no plans or estimates of costs have been drawn up for the proposed school, but said that enrollment is anticipated to approach the 500 mark. No work is planned on the proposed school until present planned construction is completed at Campbell High School. County Planning Commission approved the site last May after it had been passed by state school planning authorities. Hill stated this week that if present increase in enrollment continues, the new school will be needed in about four years.

In other building plans of the school, Hill reports that authorities are awaiting additional finances from the state before starting construction on four buildings consisting of two classroom buildings, a combination study hall and office building, and an agricultural and farm mechanics building. He stated that he expects the new swimming pool to be open by November 15. Present opening is being delayed until delivery of furnace stacks for the pool heating system can be made. No fall sports will be held in the pool, but the school will start a swimming team this spring.

Eleanor McConnell Weds Doyle Allen

Eleanor McConnell became the bride of Doyle G. Allen at a ceremony witnessed by members of the immediate families in the Carlyn Avenue home of the bride's family last Saturday. The bride chose a pink eyelet embroidered gown with matching hat and shoes and pinned an orchid corsage for the ceremony. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Len E. Mayfield, gowned in white eyelet with purple accessories.

Seventy-five persons attended a reception immediately following the ceremonies in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira O. McConnell. The couple cut a three-tiered wedding cake amidst decorations of white chrysanthemums and white candles.

Mother of the bride wore a navy blue knit ensemble for her daughter's marriage.

Carrying out honors of best man was Philip Brown of San Jose.

The benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Allen of Daingerfield, Texas. He is the manager of a shoe store in Palo Alto and is a member of the Golden Rule Lodge of the F&AM, San Jose. The new Mrs. Allen is a teacher in San Carlos Elementary school and has recently returned from a year's tour of teaching in Germany. She is a graduate of San Jose State College.

The couple are now at home in their Elm street residence in San Carlos.

COMMUNITY SERVICE FUND SPONSORED ORGANIZATIONS UNITE IN ACHIEVEMENT

A troop of Boy Scouts and residents of the Cambrian district combined forces last week to give a burned out family of six a new home, clothes, furnishings and food. In the words of the mother of the family, they would have been without a roof over their heads and clothes on their backs had their neighbors and the Scouts overlooked their predicament.

The act of aiding the burned-out family is in itself a commendable feat, but a deeper and more far-reaching meaning is contained in the willingness of people to come to the aid of a destitute family. The Scouts and residents made a practical application of the ideals of the Community Service Fund. The Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts who teamed up to clean up a temporary home and to contact neighbors and residents of the area for needed food and clothing are beneficiaries of the very Community Service Fund which so many of us have failed to contribute to this year.

Those in the area who have given to the drive in previous years had a chance to see their contributions returned to the community with added interest last Saturday. Their dimes and dollars made possible the existence of the Scouts, who directed the actions in putting a family back on its feet.

Such an example of the benefits of the Community Service Fund Drive is, of course, one of the more spectacular instances. The majority of funds contributed to the drive work in much quieter ways. They provide milk for undernourished and under privileged school children. They make it possible for a ring of the telephone to bring a visiting nurse into your home in times of sickness. They support and aid organizations which keep your children out of the streets and out of juvenile courts.

This year, the Community Service Fund is in desperate need of your contributions so that they may continue these services. To date, less than one-third of the $14,000 goal has been collected. This $14,000 fund is designed to meet the needs of a community of more than 20,000 persons.

The unpaid, volunteer workers who call at your home need less than 75 cents per person to meet their goal. In asking for that amount, they are asking you to help your own children and neighbors. They are helping you to protect your family from the unforeseen troubles which may happen to any one of us.

The next time one of these volunteers calls on you for your help, put yourself in the place of a family of six which has just lost its home and all of its belongings and then act accordingly.

BRONZAN TELLS JOINT CLUB MEETING OF FOOTBALL COACHING PROBLEMS

Coach Bob Bronzan, head football mentor at San Jose State College, told members of the joint meeting of the Kiwanis, Lions and Rotary clubs of some advantages and disadvantages of college football last Tuesday night. Bronzan recognized some of the faults of the game but stated that he looks forward to the time when they will be corrected and college football may be considered the perfect game.

The young coach struck out at the platoon system of substituting whole teams during the game, stating that the practice gave the large university and college a decided advantage over the smaller institutions. He also went on record as opposing the methods used by some of the larger colleges in securing football talent. "San Jose State," he said, "offers only room and board in their football scholarships, while many larger colleges often offer far greater inducements to prospective players."

He also explained some of the technicalities of the game and pointed out good and bad parts in some of the existing rules. Following his talk, Bronzan answered questions from members of the audience.

Bill Perry, line coach at San Jose State, spoke on some of the problems which a team meets when traveling to out of town games. He gave a detailed account of San Jose State's "lost weekend" experienced on their recent trip by air to Moscow, Idaho. He is former football coach at Campbell High school.

Musical selections were presented by three students from Campbell Union High school.

Fred Jones, president of the Kiwanis, opened the joint meeting with approximately 75 members in attendance. He then introduced Homer Hyde, president of the Rotary Club, and L. L. Dodson, president of the Lions Club. Laurance J. Hill, president-elect of the Kiwanis, then took over the meeting and introduced speakers for the evening.

Members dubbed the gathering the "KRL" meeting and plans were discussed to make the joint meeting an annual event.

JEFFERS RETURNS

Dobie Jeffers has returned from a trip east this week. During his trip he visited Detroit and various other points of interest.

SPECIAL MEETING CALLED FOR FUND DRIVE WORKERS; COLLECTIONS LAG FAR BEHIND LAST YEAR'S TOTAL

The poor response to the Community Service Fund Drive has necessitated the calling of a special meeting of solicitors to discuss means and methods to stimulate the drive, Eugene W. Barnes, general chairman, announced this week. Barnes emphasized the fact that the meeting, to be held November 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the Little Theater of the high school, was for all those connected with the drive including both workers and their coordinators and various unit heads.

Contributions to date total $4033.72. Breakdown of various sectors follows: business district, $1105.07; Campbell, $1534; Cambrian, $177; Moreland, $131; San Tomas, $592; Moorpark, $535; and pledges, $89.72. No returns have been received from the schools as yet.

Barnes compared the total to that of last year's drive, stating that almost $8,000 was collected last year and pointed out that this year's goal is approximately one-third greater than that of last year.

He stressed the importance of workers and unit heads attending the meeting, saying that in view of the small amount of returns, a better means of stimulating the drive must be found. He cited the success of nearby communities in approaching the goals. "Los Gatos has reached the 75 percent mark in 17 days, Saratoga has collected over 90 percent of their goal, and Cupertino has gone way over their goal. If we are to make this drive a success, we must find means to stimulate the drive."

All funds collected by the Community Service Fund go directly to local organizations with expenses totalling only one percent. All workers and solicitors are volunteers and are unpaid.

NEW TAX BILLS ARE EXPLAINED

Roy P. Emerson, Santa Clara County Tax Collector, said today that all Santa Clara County tax bills and Campbell Sanitary Tax bills have been mailed to taxpayers in the Campbell Sanitary District.

Emerson said that since formation of the Sanitation District 4, many taxpayers in the Campbell Sanitary District, when mailing their check for taxes to his office, have included only the county tax bill and have overlooked paying the attached Sanitary Tax bill.

The code letter legend "C" located on the front of the county tax bill identifies the amount of the tax on the bill for Sanitation District No. 4, and is a separate tax from the Campbell Sanitary District bill attached. Until the Sanitation District No. 4 takes over the Campbell Sanitary District, taxpayers will pay their Sanitation Tax on two separate bills.

Benefit Production Planned By Group

Preparations are being made by the Campbell Footlighters of "Over 21," comedy in three acts by Ruth Gordon, on November 30 and December 1 in the high school auditorium. The production is being sponsored by units of District Parent-Teachers Associations to raise funds to purchase a station wagon for members of the county blind children's school in session at Campbell. A spokesman for the group stated that the state furnishes funds for aid of the school, but allotments do not include any provisions for transportation for children. PTA units will contribute profits from the Footlighters' production to purchase suitable transportation.

Joyce and Joan were cheer leaders at Campbell Union High School.

Chickenpox Cases Take Upswing

An outbreak of 27 cases of chickenpox in the Palo Alto area last week caused a sharp increase in diseases reported to the Santa Clara County Health Department during the week ending October 20. All diseases reported totaled 44 cases; of these, 33 cases were chickenpox. Other areas reporting chickenpox include Los Gatos, San Jose rural area, and Campbell. One case of polio was reported this week, bringing the total cases of polio so far this year up to 58.

Other Campbell cases included two cases of mumps and two of tuberculosis.

SUPERVISORS WILL STUDY TILSON APPEAL FOR QUITO SHOPPING CENTER

The Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors agreed Monday to study Subdividers Lionel J. Tilson and Phillip Sanfilippo's third appeal for commercial zoning of Saratoga and Quito Roads. The pair has been denied their request for commercial zoning by the county planning commission on three different occasions. They are hoping to construct a shopping center at that locality.

Attorney Paul T. Gallagher, representing Tilson and Sanfilippo, stated that more than four hundred of the residents of the tract had signed petitions requesting the board of supervisors approval of the move. Nestor Barrett, director-secretary of the planning commission, stated that widening of both roads, contemplated eventually, will cut off the center from its septic tank drain fields. He further protested that the center will present a serious highway traffic problem.

Gallagher countered with the statement that the proposed septic tank installation has been approved by Dr. W. Elwyn Turner, county director of health, and declared that his clients will "take their chances" on road improvements forcing them to the expense of joining Sanitation District No. 4 to obtain sanitary service.

E. H. Renzel, builder of a shopping center near the tract, stated that approval of the measure before the board was not in accord with the rules of good planning. Supervisor Joseph McKinnon accused Renzel of protesting because he was "afraid of competition." Renzel countered that he would have dropped plans for his center if Tilson and Sanfilippo's had been approved. He said that his center was designed to meet the needs of the community for from four to ten years.

Sport Scenes

By "Mac"

With all the big-wigs whispering Rose Bowl in the ears of upstart Stanford Indians, we'll have to take exception and toss the cold water on such hopes. The boys from the Farm's win over the Huskies last week did add another feather in their war bonnet but their contest against the Cougars this week may end up with an Indian scalp in the Washington State camp. The Cards will be looking over the game with the invading Cougers toward the big one with the Trojans and may not be up to what Chuck Taylor calls their "best game". Washington is the stiffest team the Cards have met to date and the team which almost unhorsed the Bears from Berkeley. This time the Cards will have no breaks in which to make up those losses on fumbles which plagued them last week. Big battle will be between the Indian defense and the high scoring offense of the Cougars. Look for a Cougar win.

Pete and Joe Cefalu down at the sports hangout tells us that ducks are tops on the list for nimrods this season. The pair took up their big artillery on the opening day and came back with a limit bag of six Spregs each. Tell us they got 'em down Los Banos way and that there's plenty for all. Campbellman Botts hooked a 17 and 19 lb. pair of striped bass at Frank's Tract on the Sacto River last week . . . reports that the bass are running good.

About ten Campbellites received the word from the Fish'n'Game Commiss on their applications for anterless deer season. Season will open tomorrow and run through the 8th in Devil's Gardens in Modoc and portions of Shasta County.

The bouncing ball handlers from Camp Hdwe., winners of last year's "B" cage league, will tangle with a San Quentin five up at the Marin County establishment next Thursday. Johnny Walters, manager of the local champs, says he expects a lot from his boys, particularly since the addition of Jack Brey, formerly of the Campbell cager team, and Ron Rovai and Benny Pierce of last year's championship Wildcat Varsity hoop group. Johnny initiated a new system with his boys recently . . . we call it the "platoon system" . . . Walters says he'd rather have several good teams than one top notch group with a bunch of fillins. Says his two or three good teams will gradually wear down their opponents to their own size. As soon as the opponents begin to show signs of tiring, Johnny shoots in an entire new team for the killing. Looks like his ideas pay off . . . used the same method to cop the "B" league championship last year.

Glimmers of hope are showing for the Buc grid squad this week when they try the prowess against the gridmen from San Jose Tech. Statistically, the Bucs show much more than the Techmen with a record of 18 points scored for and 89 scored against them compared with Tech's score sheet of 6 for and 137 against.

The boys from Tech have little to show for the year while the locals have shown a steadily increasing power in the defensive side. Fumblewise, Campbell has a far better record than their opponents this afternoon. The Bucs have the added advantage of playing on their own field. On the plus side of the ledger for Tech is the highly reputed and firey spirit which the San Jose Tech team has shown everytime they meet Campbell. Last year they dumped the locals by a tremendous score of 20-6. Injuries will hurt the locals and they may miss the services of Namba as well as Rhodes who both took bumps in the Husky tilt. Coach Muir, well satisfied with the performance of his boys last week, fears that Tech spirit and morale. While declining to forecast the outcome, he gave us the lead that the Bucs would have little trouble with most of their opponents IF they played the same caliber of ball against all their foes. This could be the one where the Bucs find their swords.

To wipe the clouds of gloom away from the Buc football dept., the JayVees have been holding up well during the season. Latest victory for the Bucbabes is a 21-0 feather in their caps over the hapless Willow Glenners last Monday.

BUCS WILL TRY TAMING MUSTANG THIS AFTERNOON

Buc Grid Mentor Jim Muir has been working on that old bugaboo of his boys with pass defense this week in preparation for the contest with San Jose Tech this afternoon. Muir, confident of the strength of his forward wall, has been expecting an attempt at aerial bombardment from the Mustangs. Still dubious about forecasting a win, he commented that his boys could sew up the game if they played the same style ball as they did last week against the Washington Huskies.

The blonde coach is grooming Larry Perrira to take over Rhodes spot in the backfield. Rhodes was injured in the game with Washington and his appearance in today's contest is doubtful. Duane Holm may have the job of filling in for Namba who also may be out of the game.

Muir stated that his greatest fear is the spirit of the Mustangs this afternoon. "They'll be high for us this afternoon," he said. "Tech has always managed to work up a great amount of enthusiasm for their games with us but the boys know it and they'll give them a fight for their money."

110's Hit Sixth Straight Win

Coach Bert Robinson's 110 cagers ran their winning streak up to six straight games with a 27-23 victory over the Lincoln five on Monday afternoon. Their bigger brothers, the 120's, dropped a close thriller to the Lincoln squad, 53-42. The locals threatened at every turn of the game and a final period comeback was stopped by the ending gun.

Last Thursday, both teams turned in a convincing victory in dumping the Los Gatos Wildcats 35-26 in the lightweights and 56-21 in the heavier division. Arnaud sparked the 110's with 12 digits and Yates picked off honors for the 120's, also with 12 tallies.

Too lazy to live!

This "freak" accident killed three people, injured two others. But was it freakish that this driver was too lazy to put on tire chains, then drove too fast on icy roads? Pure carelessness and negligence caused this tragedy. Use extreme caution during winter months. Don't take chances. The chances are against you!

Don't gamble with death by driving without chains in slippery weather. Bare tires require 80% to 110% greater stopping distances than tires with chains. Take a little time to put on chains and live a lot longer!

More than half the day is dark during winter months. This makes winter driving exceptionally hazardous. Slow down sooner for stop signs when roads are slippery. Cut speed at night when visibility is poor.

BE CAREFUL— the life you save may be your own!
